Holly Hill News.

On Wednesday, Miss Baumer, who has been boarding at Rose Villa for some months, left for the north. She intends seeing Lake George before returning to her home in Wheeling, Va.

W. B. Heath left on Wednesday for Canada, where he will make his home in future. He has lived here during the past two years, and will be much missed by his little circle of friends.

Frank Tittle returned on Wednesday from Fort Pierce. He tells of the insect pest in the Indian River district, flies being so troublesome to the horses that the drivers are obliged to envelope the heads of the poor animals in sacks with holes cut for them to see through. We are singularly fortunate here in the scarcity of insects, even the ubiquitous mosquito is less troublesome on the river front than in most districts, and the flies of the interior are an unknown torment.

Port Orange

There was a very pleasant picnic last Saturday at the old sugar mill.

Monday Mr. and Mrs. Whidden and Mr. Eldridge left for their homes in the North.

Tuesday there was a very large number at the station to bid our departing friends good-by.

Mr. Lulbury is having a good deal of work done on his place on the Peninsula during his absence in France.

Mrs. Raulerson was down here from Holly Hill and attended the picnic with her sister, Mrs. Dupont. Mrs. T. J. Sparkman was also there accompanied by two sisters.

Mrs. E. Fair, on returning from the picnic, found a letter awaiting her, asking her to go over to her parents' home, near Deland, on account of her mother being ill. She went over at once.

Mr. Haff has had his fine boat, "The Brooklyn," hauled out and put in her house till next fall. Mrs. Haff has been quite ill, but we are happy to say she is out again. They expect to start for home on Saturday.

Mrs. J. C. Nokes, the last guest at the hotel, and Mrs. Eldridge and her daughters, Mrs. Jameson and Miss Nettie Eldridge, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. J. H. Bonny and her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Winn—all left by the same train. Mrs. Nokes is going to Cleveland, O.; Mrs. Eldridge and daughters to Chicago, but they will be joined at Atlanta by Mr. Eldridge, who is obliged to go round by Savannah; Mr. and Mrs. Bradley's destination is Ohio, and Mrs. Bonny and daughter's is Rockford, Ill. We shall miss them very much, as they are most estimable people and have lots of friends here. As the train they went on left town, it set fire to the brush on the east side of the track, near the section house, and burned from the railroad to the river and from Herbert Avenue to Reed's canal. Only hard work and back-firing saved the houses on the north side of Herbert Avenue. Wm. Johnson's house and Dr. DuBois' barn, as well as E. N. Carpenter's house had narrow escapes. It seems to us that the railroad company could do something to stop their engines setting fire to the brush along their road.

A Letter to Our Legislators.

DAYTONA, Fla., May 9, 1901.
To Hon. Charles L. Smith and Hon. Frank W. Sams, Tallahassee, Fla.:

GENTLEMEN—Daytona has acted by private initiative instead of through the constituted authorities of city and State. We have a foxy Mayor. I went to him on Sunday morning, after the Jacksonville fire, asking that the council should be called together on his recommendation, that they vote five thousand dollars in aid of Jacksonville, and telegraph the Legislature for authority to consummate the donation by submission to the city electorate within forty-eight hours. He promised to see every one of the councilmen and proceed. He informed me that the meeting of council would be called at 2 o'clock, p. m., Monday. When I reached the meeting I found he had called a lynch-law meeting, instead of a meeting of the council, and had stacked it with picaune roosters who crow loud but do little.

So my last letter to you falls flat, and Daytona is not, as she ought to be, the banner city of the world in carrying Christianity into the State as the Commonwealth of God and the people, instead of the kingdom of God throughout the universe and the empire of priestcraft and kingcraft on the earth.

Stand firm and see the heavens of tradition fall by the enactment of the Florida Legislature. Yours cordially,
C. H. SPENCER.

THE GREAT SCOURGE

Of modern times is consumption. Many cures and discoveries from time to time are published, but FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR does truthfully claim to cure all cases in the early stages, and always affords comfort and relief in the very worst cases. Take no substitutes. Dr. J. M. Jones.

Tired

that's all. No energy, no vim, no vigor, no ambition. The head aches, thoughts are confused, memory fails. Life becomes a round of work but half accomplished, of eating that does not nourish, of sleep that fails to refresh and of resting that never rests. That's the beginning of nervous prostration.

"I never had anything do me so much good as Dr. Miles' Nervine. I was tired, nervous, sleepless and worn-out and Nervine cured me. I know of nothing so good for indigestion and general building up of the system."

Second Avenue, west, has been underbrushed and burned from Bert Foster's to the ridge beyond the hammock. A gang of men are now grading and corduroying through the hammock. This avenue is the most direct line to the Shuntz new possessions, past the Greenwood cemetery. It is proposed to connect with the DeLand road north of the Long pond, and make it a county road. It will also connect with the Tomoka road, via the King's road, for Barberville and Volusia.
